June 15, 1937.

Mr. J. R. Whitmer, Chairman
Dr. H. H. Cherry Bronze Statue Committee,
Kentucky State Teachers College,
Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Whitmer:

Thank you for your letter of June 14. The policy which we contemplate issuing on the statue will be written under what is known as a Fine Arts Form. This Form provides all risks coverage and protects you against loss by fire, theft, lightning, damage caused by attempted theft, cyclone, tornado, windstorm, earthquake, flood, explosion, malicious damage and aircraft damage.

The rate would be $1.50 for each $100.00 of coverage at its present location on the premises of Bronze, Inc. There will be nothing in the policy to confine coverage while on the premises of Bronze, Inc. as a Fine Arts policy is a floater coverage and the insurance follows the statue wherever it might be in the United States or Canada.

For your further information, the policy can be written for one year and a return premium will be payable any time the policy is returned for cancellation.

We trust the foregoing is the information you desire but if any further questions occur to you, do not hesitate to write us.

Coverage will be effective immediately upon advices from you.

Yours very truly

ALFON E. BAHR & CO.

By Alfon E. Bahr.
